

Fun At-Home Activities

June

Register for summer reading!

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
	Create a pattern of colors or shapes and have your child repeat it.	Read your child some poetry from children's poetry books such as Shel Silverstein.	Have your child compare toys using these words: big-little, large-small.	Ask your child to place his/her toy over , under, behind, above an object	Read to your child for at least 15 minutes.	Plan an exciting activity to enjoy together.
Let your child fix a special treat for the family.	Register for a summer reading program at your library.	Finger-paint with whipped cream, tinted with food coloring on a cookie sheet.	Visit the library with your child. Use the toddler computer together.	Play follow the leader with your child. Take turns being the leader.	Make a puppet from a paper bag.	Bake some cookies with your child.
Spend the day doing something special as a family.	Set up the sprinkler and let your child have fun playing in it.	Listen to music together and dance!	Teach your child a new outdoor game.	Read to your child for at least 15 minutes.	Have your child count the handles on the kitchen cabinets.	Have your child make a card for dad or someone special.
Let your child make a dessert for Dad. First day of summer!	Read a Dr. Seuss book to your child. Identify the rhyming words.	Ask your child to find red objects, blue objects, and then green objects.	Have your child look through a magazine and find various shapes.	Have your child set the table. Fold the napkins in half.	Using a book ask your child to find various letters, colors, shapes or things.	Read to your child at least 15 minutes.
Play a game with your child.	Bring your child to the library's special performance today. "Uncle Pete"	Sing songs with your child.	 Children are made readers on the laps of parents!			