C-SPAN Civics Bus to Visit St. Mary's County

Washington, DC – The C-SPAN Civics Bus is on the road to St. Mary's County. The 45-foot mobile production studio and demonstration center will travel to the Leonardtown and Lexington Park Branch Libraries to share C-SPAN's education and civic resources. The bus will be open for tours to the public. MetroCast and the St. Mary's County Library are hosting the visit.

Schedule of Events

Tuesday, June 16, 2009

Leonardtown Branch Library
23250 Hollywood Road
Leonardtown, MD 20650
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Lexington Park Branch Library
21677 FDR Boulevard
Lexington Park, MD 20653
1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

All citizens are invited to tour the bus to learn about C-SPAN and its many resources. With a new exterior design and interior that features the latest television production equipment, the C-SPAN Civics Bus displays the network's education website, C-SPAN Classroom (www.c-spanclassroom.org), a free membership service for educators with downloadable video clips; the C-SPAN Video library (www.c-spanarchives.org); and C-SPAN's television coverage of the new administration.

C-SPAN
30 YEARS

About C-SPAN

C-SPAN, celebrating 30 years as America's political network of record, was created by America's cable companies as a public service in 1979. C-SPAN programs three public affairs television networks; C-SPAN Radio, a Washington, D.C. radio station distributed nationally by XM Satellite Radio; and a video-rich website. C-SPAN is currently available in over 92 million cable and satellite households. For more information, visit www.c-span.org. For more information about C-SPAN, contact Jeremy Art at 202-309-3360.
