

Fun At-Home Activities November

Read to your child everyday!

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
						Have your child count the eyelets in a tennis shoe.
Show your child 4 different crayon colors. Remove one while he/she is looking away. Ask which one is missing.	Have your child make circles by tracing around the bottom of a glass with a pencil.	Have your child make a picture with the circles he/she traced yesterday.	Have your child look out the window and then without looking tell what he/she saw.	Have your child search for things that are green in your home.	Have your child count the number of times he/she can hop on one foot.	Read your child's favorite story to him/her.
Play a game with your child.	Give your child silverware to set the table. Have him/her separate it into knives, spoons, and forks.	Explain what a veteran is and have your child draw a picture of one.	Print these letters ABA and have your child say which one is different. Continue using other letter combinations.	Read to your child an additional 15 minutes today.	Go for a walk with your child. Take turns counting your steps.	Let your child plan tomorrow's breakfast.
Have your child find 4 objects—flowers, leaves, or pinecones—and use them to make decorations for the table.	Have your child help make lunch. Give simple directions and see if he/she can follow them.	Listen to music with your child.	Have your child look through the newspaper and count all the pictures of turkeys.	Have your child test items to see which ones float and which do not.	Ask your child to find various letters on a page.	Help your child make a centerpiece for the table.
Take to your child about being thankful and ask what he/she is thankful for.	Write numbers 1-10 on pieces of paper. Allow your child to draw one and then count out that number of dried beans.	Put a small amount food on your child's tongue and have him/her describe it.	Have your child sort coins (pennies, nickels, dimes) and ask him/her how they are different.	Celebrate Thanksgiving with your family. Take time to read to your child today.	Have your child follow simple directions—clap, jump, hop, turn to the left...to the right.	Play a game with your child.
Have your child make nonsense rhymes using family names.					Children are made readers on the laps of their parents!
