

Friends of St. Mary's County Library
Annual Brunch Reservation Form

The FOL Annual Brunch will be held at St. George's Episcopal Church in Valley Lee on Saturday, January 21, 2017 beginning at 11:00 AM. We are privileged to have Dr. Julia King, professor of Archaeology at St. Mary's College, as our speaker this year. The cost of this event is $24.00 per person. All reservation forms and payment are due by January 13, 2017. We look forward to seeing you there!

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Contact Phone: _____

Number Attending: _____

Amount Enclosed: _____

Speaker Info.:

Dr. King is the author of several noteworthy books and articles, including Archaeology, Narrative, and the Politics of the Past: The View from Southern Maryland; Still Life with Tobacco: The Archaeological Uses of Dutch Art; and Passing for Black in Seventeenth-Century Maryland. Her project on "Political Development and Virginia's Plantation Landscape" was recently awarded a prestigious Omohundro Institute of Early American History and Culture/Jamestown Rediscovery Fellowship. This project looks at some of the differences in development between royal colonies, Jamestown, and proprietary, St. Mary's.

Send with your check payable to:

Friends of St. Mary's County Library

P.O. Box 165

Leonardtown, MD 20650

