St. Mary's County Newspaper Archive Troubleshooting

The St. Mary's County Newspaper Archive uses the browser's default PDF reader to display the newspaper pages. Depending on the browser and plugin being used, you may not see the newspaper pages. Try these troubleshooting steps to try to get the pages to display. These screenshots will not cover every possible issue with the displays because everything depends on the version of the browser and the exact plugin you are using. If you are still unable to see the papers or you see something completely different from anything you see on these pages, please contact our Virtual Services Coordinator at sstephenson@stmalib.org.

These pages will also cover printing from the newspaper archive. If you want to print the entire page, you can usually do so from the browser. Screenshots show how to do this. You may also want to print just an article within a page. In order to do this, you will need to open the PDF in Adobe Reader to use the Snapshot tool. Screenshots of this process are included in this guide.

Chrome

If you see a blank screen and the PDF downloads automatically (see lower left of image), you can open the file in Adobe Reader, or change settings to display the PDF in the browser. Instructions for changing the settings are below.

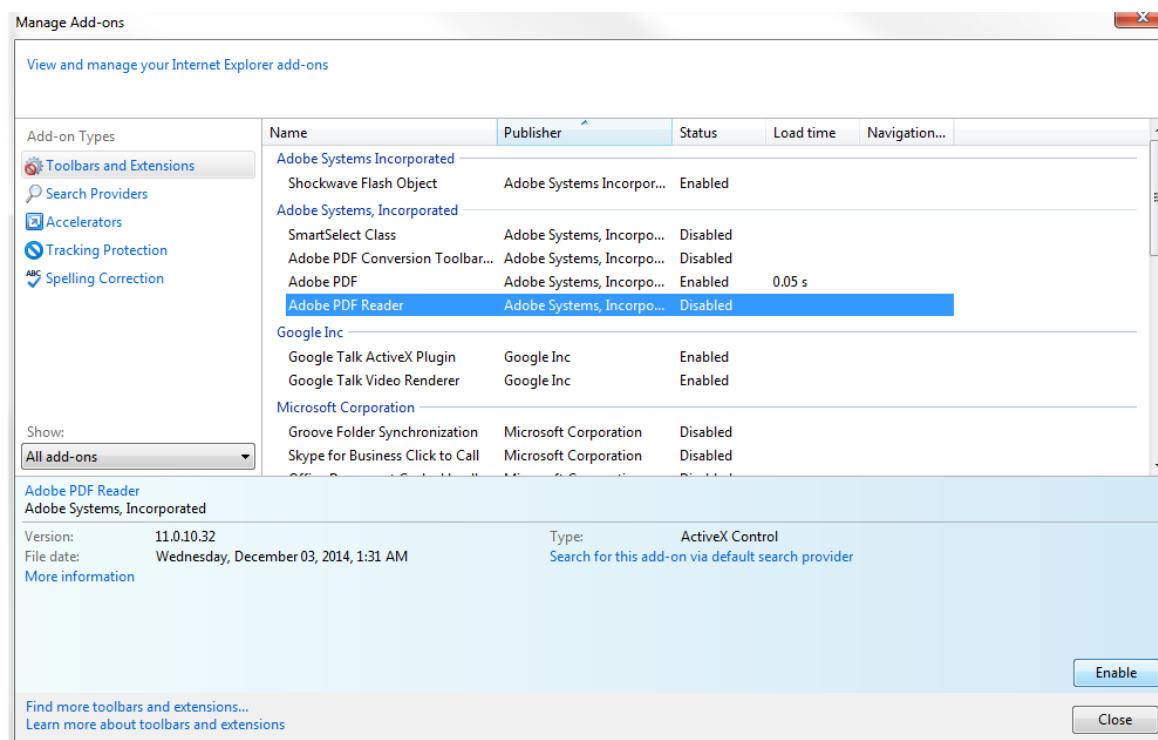

Most users of Chrome will see the PDF in your browser like this

If you do not and the PDF is automatically downloaded, you may want to change your settings. Click the menu button in the upper right corner of the browser (three vertical dots), then click Settings.

Scroll to the bottom and click Advanced. Under Privacy and Security, click Site Settings. Near the bottom, click PDF Documents, then turn off Download PDF files instead of automatically opening them in Chrome.
Take a Snapshot of a Page

Printing the entire PDF results in an entire newspaper page being printed on one 8.5 x 11 piece of paper, which can be very difficult to read. To print just a portion of a page, you will need to save the PDF to your computer and open it in Adobe Reader (see instructions above for accessing the save option). Once the PDF is open in Adobe Reader, choose Edit, then Take a Snapshot. Drag a rectangle around the area for printing.
